

Magdalena Rowan B.A., B.Ed., FAIT

Magdalena Rowan has been a practicing certified interpreter and translator for over 40 years. During this time, she has also been involved in most facets of the industry. She has provided services across all levels of interpreting. She has been an educator in interpreting and translating since the eighties and has worked extensively with the NAATI in the development of the NAATI certification system and the NAATI Continuous Improvement Program. She is a NAATI examiner and is also a member of the Judicial Council on Diversity and Inclusion subcommittee, responsible for developing the Recommended National Standards for Working with Interpreters in Courts and Tribunals.

Magdalena is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Interpreters and Translators and a member of the New Zealand Society of Interpreters and Translators and has been appointed to the NAATI Board of Directors as of December 2023.